[NUMB. 816.]

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY December 25th, to MONDAY January 1st, 1750.

PHILADELPHIA, October 19.

FROM Lewes there is advice, that on ſunday the 10th inſtant, they had one of the moſt violent ſtorms, Wind at N.E. that ever was known there; and what is moſt remarkable is, that its violence cut a paſſage from the creek through the beach into the bay, where there is about 5 feet water, by which ſmall veſſels can paſs and repaſs.

Boſton, October 16. On the 8th inſtant at night, we had a moſt violent ſtorm of wind, which did conſiderable damage to the ſhipping in the harbour, and put 7 veſſels on ſhore at the vineyard.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Halifax in Nova-Scotia, dated October 2.

" About 7 o'clock laſt ſaturday morning, as ſeveral of major Gilman's workmen, with one ſoldier unarm'd, were hewing a ſtick of timber, about 200 yards from his houſe and mills, on the eaſt ſide of the harbour, they were ſurpriſed by about 40 Indians, who firſt fired 2 ſhot, and then a volley upon them, which killed 4, 2 of which they ſcalp'd, and cut off the heads of the others; the 5th is miſſing, and probably carried off; 2 or 3 men at work very near the others made their eſcape to a wooden flanker on one ſide of the major's houſe. As ſoon as he was alarmed, he called in all his people, and a party of 12 ſoldiers, into his little half finiſhed block-houſe, fir'd his guns into the woods among them, and waited their attack, which they did not make, altho' they might eaſily have carried the place. As this is an open declaration of war, we have Col. Gorham's rangers on the ſcout after them, and 'tis probable ſeveral companies will ſoon be raiſed, on ſome proper footing, to fight them in their own way. We are under no apprehenſion of danger in the town, as we are now ſurrounded by 5 picketed block houſes, and have 900 effective troops, and about that number of inhabitants well armed. Beſides, we have 100 of Phillip's regiment ſtrongly entrench'd at the head of the bay, and a company at Minas. This day his excellency our governor, to our great joy, came on ſhore from the Beaufort (under the diſcharge of near 100 cannon from ſhips in the harbour) to reſide in his houſe, which now makes a very pretty appearance. He was ſaluted on his landing by a grand diſcharge of the artillery planted here for the defence of the town. "

We hear from Halifax, that governor Cornwallis has given a commiſſion to major Gilman, to raiſe a company of rangers in theſe parts, to traverſe the woods in purſuit of the Indians, in the ſame manner that Col. Gorham does with his rangers.

We have advice from Caſco bay, that things don't go on ſo well at the congreſs there as could be wiſhed: Only 9 of one tribe of Indians, and 7 of another, were come in on wedneſday laſt, and none of the Penobſcot tribe, which is the moſt powerful of all the eaſtern Indians; ſo that 'tis feared the treaty will come to nothing.

Philadelphia, Oct. 26. Laſt week died at Wye-River, in an advanced age, Richard Bennet, Eſq; ſuppoſed to be the richeſt man in America.

LONDON.

Sept. 30. Remarks on the Plan of Halifax in N. Scotia. If theſe Streets are all built in ſtrait Lines, croſſing one another at right Angles, as Babylon was of old, and as many Cities in the Eaſt, and Philadelphia in Pennſylvania, are at preſent, the Town muſt very ſoon make an agreeable, though not a magnificent Appearance. This Advantage of Regularity is what new Colonies, begun with ſufficient Numbers, and powerfully ſupported at the firſt, have over others whoſe Beginnings are ſmaller, and Increaſes more gradual. It was on Account of thoſe ſmall Beginnigs, and thoſe gradual Augmentations, that antient Rome itſelf was very irregular; and it is on the ſame Account that London, Paris, and moſt other great Cities of Europe have the ſame Diſadvantages at this Day, except in thoſe Parts that are of new Conſtruction.

By a Letter from a Gentleman concerned in the Fiſheries from Burrowſtounneſs, we are informed, that great Part of the Coaſt where the Fiſheries are to be eſtabliſhed are levelled, and great Progreſs is made in erecting Buildings proper for that Undertaking.

It is already given out, that the next Seſſions of Parliament will, among other Things, entirely ſettle the African Trade, and that to Hudſon's Bay, ſo as to make them more generally beneficial; and that ſome new Regulations in regard to the Herring Fiſhery will be introduced, in order to eſtabliſh that profitable Branch of Trade on a ſolid Footing.

On Thurſday an Expreſs arrived in Town from Flintſhire, which brought an Account of the Death of Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, of Winſtay in Denbighſhire, Bart. and Steward of his Majeſty's Lordſhip's of Bromfield and Yale, in the County of Denbigh; occaſioned by a Fall from his Horſe, as he was hunting in his Park at Winſtay with ſome neighbouring Gentlemen, which ſo fractured his Scull that he died in two Hours after.

By his Death the Public has loſt the greateſt Pattern of Generoſity in the Kingdom: He was a valuable and ſincere Friend, and a noble Example of conjugal Fidelity, a Virtue very rare in this more improved Age in Lewdneſs and Gallantry; his Houſe was a daily Relief to the Poor, for there was Bread for the Hungry, and Drink for the Thirſty, none ſuffered to go away empty; in a Word, he was a good Chriſtian, like Nathaniel in the Goſpel, a Man in whom there was no Guile.

We hear a Bill will be brought into parliament the next ſeſſions, to lay a large penalty on any perſon or perſons who ſend their children to be educated in ſeminaries abroad, whereby great numbers of perſons are brought up enemies to the religion and government of their own country.

Yeſterday was held at Guildhall, a court of common hall, for the election of a lord mayor for the year enſuing, when ſir Samuel Pennant, knt. alderman and ironmonger, and John Blatchford, Eſq; alderman and goldſmith, were returned to the court of aldermen, who choſe the former; upon which ſir Samuel Pennant returned his thanks to the livery in a very handſome ſpeech; and then the lord mayor complimented the common-hall upon their choice of ſo worthy a gentleman to ſucceed him.

Octob. 3. Application was made to Parliament laſt Seſſion, on Behalf of the Chaplains in the Royal Navy, that they may be put on a Liſt of Army Chaplains when out of Pay.

Three Men of War and two Sloops are ordered to be victualled &c. in order to ſail to the Weſt Indies, to relieve ſome of the Ships on that Station.

On Saturday arrived in Town the Tripoline Ambaſſador, with a grand Retinue.

At One o'Clock this Morning died, after a few Hours Illneſs, at his Houſe in Leiceſter-Fields, Dr. Samuel Liſle, Lord Biſhop of Norwich.

Benjamin Keene, Eſq; is ſoon expected to arrive here from Madrid; and the Gentlemen in Exchange Alley pretend to ſay that he has not ſucceeded in his Commiſſion, which has occaſioned a little Fall in the Stocks this Day.

We are aſſured that M. de Caylus, governor of Martineco, hath propoſed to Mr. Grenville, Governor of Barbados, conjointly to evacuate the iſland of Tobago, without invalidating the right which his moſt Chriſtian or Britannick Majeſty may form to that place; and that orders have been ſent to Mr. Grenville to agree to the ſaid propoſal, and proceed immediately to the execution thereof.

CHARLES-

The Ship Beulah, Capt. Child, of and for Philadelphia, from London, is put into this Port.

ST. JOHN's, Antigua, November 3.

Last monday being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty's Birth Day, His Excellency General MATHEW gave a very ſplendid Entertainment, in the New Court-Houſe, to the Council and Aſſembly; to which were invited the Officers of General Dalzell's Regiment, and thoſe of the Navy, with moſt of the Gentlemen of the Iſland; and ſome Perſons of Diſtinction from St. Chriſtopher's. A Captain's Guard march'd into St. John's to attend His Excellency; and the remaining Part of General Dalzell's Regiment (except what were on the Out Guards) were drawn out at Rat Iſland, and at Twelve o'Clock fired three Vollies, which were followed by a Diſcharge of the Artillery of that Iſland, James's Fort, and Monk's Hill. After Dinner the following Healths were drank under a Diſcharge of Artillery at each of them: The KING; the Prince of Wales; the Princeſs of Wales; the Duke of Cumberland; the Royal Family; Duke of Newcaſtle; Duke of Bedford; Rt. Hon. Henry Pelham, Chancellor of the Exchequer; Earl of Sandwich; Earl of Halifax, and Board of Trade; Lord Anſon; His Excellency, and the Leeward Iſlands; General Dalzell, and his Corps; Commodore Holbourne, and his Command; the Preſident, and Council of Antigua; the Speaker, and Aſſembly of Antigua; and the Ladies of Antigua. At Night there was a Ball, at the Free Maſons Lodge, for the Ladies; who made a very brilliant Appearance. The whole was conducted with the utmoſt Decency and Order, much to the Honour of His Excellency, and the Satisfaction of all preſent.
